About the Host Institution:

Sri Sarada College for Women, Tirunelveli was established in 1986 to fulfill the educational needs of the women of the Southern districts of Tamil Nadu. It is a self financing institution. The College offers 11 UG Programmes, 6 PG Programmes and 4 M.Phil Pre-doctoral and 2 PhD Doctoral programmes. The vision of our revered founder Srimath Swami Chidbhananda was that the girls who enter the portals of this temple of learning should leave it as "Nirai Nangaiyar" – the perfect women. The Vision and Mission of the college are reflected in its motto "The Harmonious Development of The Hand, The Heart and The Head".

About the Conference :

The outstanding virtues of Indian womanhood are courage, serenity, self-control, sweetness, compassion, wisdom, and an intuitive relationship with God. Holy Mother Sarada Devi possessed all these virtues. Since the acquisition of such gifts is the dream of all women, Holy Mother and Kasturba Gandhi may aptly be seen as the symbol of aspiration of women everywhere." 14-year old Kasturba was married to 13-year old Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi in a marriage arranged by their parents, in the traditional Indian manner. Kasturba Gandhi first involved herself with politics in South Africa in 1904 when she helped her husband and others establish the Phoenix Settlement near Durban. In 1913, she took part in protests against the ill-treatment of Indian immigrants in South Africa, for which she was arrested. While in prison, Kasturba helped other women by leading them in prayer referring to the prison as the temple. Kasturba also referred to the women as sisters. While imprisoned, Kasturba encouraged educated women to teach the uneducated women how to read and write. In 1917, Kasturba focused on helping to improve the welfare of women in Champaran, Bihar where Gandhi was working with indigo farmers. She taught women hygiene, discipline, health, reading and writing. The Kasturba Gandhi National Memorial Trust Fund was set up in her memory. Gandhi requested that this fund would be used to help women and children in villages in India.

Objectives of the conference:

To initiate, integrate, infuse, intuit and invigorate Gandhian Principle to Practice by the present use to an innovative India.
