Event Report on SWCED 2025-2026

Date: 17.09.2025

Time: 9.30

Venue: Sister Nivedita Auditorium

On 17th September 2025 the Department of English organized SCWED 2025, an Intercollegiate Literary Competition focusing on Cyborg Literature, where students explored the fusion of humans and machines. The event drew enthusiastic participants from various institutions of MS University jurisdiction. The event began with the inauguration ceremony, marked by the traditional lighting of the lamp by Yatiswari Mukundapriya Ambaji, Advisor of the college. The chanting of Om Sahanavavathu and Tamil Thai Vazhthu uplifted the spirit of the gathering. Dr. Lalitha, Head of the Department of English, welcomed the dignitaries, participants, and audience, setting the tone for a day of creativity and intellect. The on-stage competitions commenced at 10:00 a.m. with events such as Strange Meeting, Flash Theatre, Lit Walk, Lone Voice, and Echa Mudras, judged by Mrs. Adeline (St. Xavier's College) and Dr. Regina (Maria Arts and Science College). Simultaneously, the off-stage events—Caption Writing, Pen a Poem, Literary Collage, and Literary Quiz—were conducted at different venues, judged by Smt. Kanmani (Sarah Tucker College) and Smt. J. Rama (Thiruvalluvar Arts and Science College, Papanasam). The valedictory ceremony began at 3:30 p.m. Dr. Athira welcomed the gathering, followed by the much-awaited prize distribution by Lt. (Smt.) S. Chithra, Assistant Professor of English & Associate NCC Officer. The winners were honoured, and the judges were felicitated for their contributions. Rani Anna College proudly lifted the Overall Shield, marking their triumph in the competitions. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Smt R Gurunagalakshmi Assistant Professor of English, bringing to a close a memorable day of literature, art, and youthful creativity.
